

MA ENGLISH

1. Programme Code: 090305

Duration of the course: 2 years

2. Program Description (Max. 100 Words): The M.A. in English programme offers a varied range of literatures written in English--teaching literary canons as well popular and new literatures. A gamut of inter-disciplinary courses that cover English Studies (novels, poetry and drama), Linguistics, Translation Studies, Gender and Sexuality Studies, World Theatre, World Literatures, Women's Writing, and Film Studies constitute the academic curriculum of the post-graduate in English at the GD Goenka University. This exhaustive and interesting curriculum is designed keeping in mind the global market which looks for scholars and researches with great analytical skills and rich vocabulary. The faculty at the School of Humanities and Social Science follow an interactive, innovative and pragmatic teaching methodology which enables the students to develop an interest in studying the programme besides participating in other co-curricular activities.

3. Eligibility Criteria (National and International Students): Graduation in any field with Economics as one of the subjects from a UGC approved university. In addition, applicants will also have to successfully complete Goenka Aptitude Test for Admission (GATA) and appear for a personal interview.