Subject:- Six Month Certificate Programme on Developing of Social Science text books and other curricular materials

Respected Sir,

Namaste!

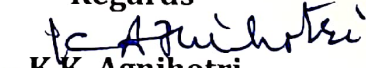

Greetings from Haryana State Higher Education Council.

Your kind attention is invited to the National Council of Education and Research and Training, which is offering a six-month course on developing social of Social Science text books and other curricular materials for working social science teachers and teacher educators interested in social science curriculum development and have the responsibility in this area at district and state-level institutions. The course will start in August, 2024. It will select the interested teachers or educators through various criteria.

The objective of the programme is not only to provide professional training to teachers and teacher educators but also to strengthen the capacity of state level institutes like SCERT or DIETs to develop quality social science curricular materials. It would be useful for the department to use this opportunity to create its own group of professionally trained teachers to develop social science text books and other curricular materials.

Therefore, the department is requested to disseminate information about the 6-month certificate programme on the development of social science text books and other curricular materials among teachers, teacher educators, and faculties from district and state level institutions and ensure their participation. The course completion certificate will also be awarded by the NCERT to the participants. The full details along with the link to the application form are enclosed.

Regards
